

GSS TRAVEL GRANT APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

The purpose of the GSS Travel Grant Program is to assist graduate students with professional conferences, case competitions, and archive travel. The grant is intended to supplement existing funds, not to supersede them.

To be eligible for GSS Travel Grants, your Graduate Unit must be active during the dates of travel. It is the responsibility of the student to ensure his/her unit maintains active status. All approved travel grant applications are contingent upon verification of active unit status during the dates of the conference.

You may check your unit's eligibility at <https://gradlife.web.lehigh.edu/node/170>

For more details, read GSS Fiscal Governance Policy: <https://gradlife.web.lehigh.edu/gss/about-us>

Before you begin traveling for an eligible activity, you must complete the following:

1. Complete entire application and submit to the Graduate Life Office.
(Packer House, 217 W. Packer Ave.)
 - Application must be filled out in ink.
 - Application must be submitted BEFORE travel date, or your application will be denied.

Important:

- Indicate whether or not you are going to be a conference presenter.
 - Presenters may receive a maximum of $150
 - Non-presenters may receive a maximum of $75
- Indicate estimated expenses
 - Eligible expenses include: registration fees, hotel accommodation, travel (e.g., air fare), parking, public transportation, food and drinks (no more than $20 per day), gasoline ($0.20/mile)
- Indicate how much of your expenses will be covered by non-GSS sources.
- Obtain signature from your advisor/department chair.
- For presenters: you must attach a copy of proof of your participation as a presenter, registration confirmation for a case competition, or librarian approval for travel to archives.
- For non-presenters: you must then attach a conference announcement as proof of the conference.

Upon return from your approved trip, you must:

2. Complete a reimbursement form (available at the Graduate Life Office and from your Graduate Coordinator) and submit to the Graduate Life Office (Packer House, 217 W. Packer Ave.)
 - Reimbursement form must be submitted within 30 days of the end of your trip, or your approved funding will be re-released to other applicants.

Important:

- Attach your original receipts to the reimbursement form.
- It is advised that you personally drop off your application, receipts and reimbursement form at the Graduate Life Office.
 - Retain copies of all your receipts in case your application is lost in the mail.
 - The GSS will not be responsible for receipts that are lost in the mail.

I verify that I am a graduate student and that the above cost and funding estimates are accurate, if I was denied funding or if this program did not exist, I would have to pay the estimate out-of-pocket expenses to attend the conference or case competition, or travel to archives. Should the amount of funding available from other sources change, I realize that it is my responsibility to notify the GSS at the Graduate Life Office of the changes and to adjust my application to reflect the changes. Furthermore, I understand that if I willfully misuse this program, I will be ineligible for travel grant privileges for any duration the Graduate Student Senate sees fit.
